This stunning townhouse in Cómpeeta has undergone a complete renovation, it has been finished to a high standard and with every attention to detail. This property is in an idyllic location being situated in a quiet street, just below the beautiful main square "Plaza Almijara". One enters the property into a charming reception area, to the left there is a lovely guest double bedroom with an en-suite wet room with attractive sliding doors. Stairs take you up to a lovely landing area with a Juliet balcony and there is also a gas heater which warms up the whole house. Then to the right is the wonderful master bedroom with a walk-in closet area. On this same floor there is also a large family bathroom with a shower. The next flight of stairs takes you up to the bright and modern kitchen-dining room and there is also a double bedroom which is currently being used as an office. Then the last flight of stairs takes you up to the "Pièce de Résistance" which is the stunning living room which has large patio doors which open on to the sun terrace and to the partially shaded roof terrace. There is plenty of seating area to entertain guests and from where one can relax and enjoy the breathtaking views of the village, mountains and the Mediterranean sea. This property also benefits from having a large storage room next to the house, which could easily be converted into a self contained guest apartment or into a small shop, etc.... An amazing and spacious townhouse which must be seen to be appreciated!
