We have large town houses in Spain like this one. It is located in the village of Algarrobo, less than a 5 minutes drive from the Costa del Sol beaches and within walking distance of all the local amenities. One enters the property from the street into a living-dining room and on this same floor there is a fully equipped kitchen, a single bedroom, a pantry and a guest toilet room. A flight of stairs takes you up to a large bedroom and to a smaller bedroom which could be converted into a dressing room. On the second floor there is another good size double bedroom. Both of the double bedrooms have access to a balcony. On the top floor there is a utility room, a family bathroom with a bath and the terrace from where you can enjoy the beautiful views of the village and the surrounding mountains. This spacious townhouse has a lot to offer and although it needs some renovation, it would be a very good investment either for a family that wants to live there as a permanent residence or as a holiday home where they can spend their holidays on the Costa Del Sol, as well as to provide a rental income.
