Charming townhouse in the centre of the white village of Frigiliana, 5 minutes from Nerja. The village offers all the amenities necessary for daily life . The property is extremely spacious and very traditional. It offers a private garage. The house is divided into two properties with independent access. The main house consists of an entrance hall with access on one side to two double bedrooms, a single room and a family bathroom and on the other hand leads to the kitchen and a corridor with a door to a magnificent sunny terrace. From the garage some stairs go up to a second terrace with beautiful views and connect the two properties. The ground floor is in need of renovation, which could become a second home for another family or rent it to obtain an extra income.
